CLARK HOWELL MEMORIAL HIGHWAY — DESIGNATED.

No. 13.

A RESOLUTION

To officially designate Highway No. 85 from Atlanta to Warm Springs, Georgia, the Clark Howell Memorial Highway.

WHEREAS, the late Clark Howell, president and editor of The Atlanta Constitution was during his lifetime one of Georgia's outstanding citizens, democratic national committeeman for more than 30 years, a statesman of the first rank, and a man who worked untiringly for the betterment of Georgia, and

WHEREAS, the said late Clark Howell was one of our State's earliest and staunchest advocates of good roads and many of our public highways now improved were due to his foresight and vision of the future, and

WHEREAS, as much as any other Georgian said late Clark Howell worked for the development of Warm Springs and helped to make it the outstanding such development of the State, resulting in President Franklin D. Roosevelt establishing his part-time home in our State.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Senate of the State of Georgia, the House concurring, do hereby officially designate the new state highway No. 85 from Atlanta to Warm Springs through Fayetteville, Gay, Woodbury and Manchester the Clark Howell Memorial Highway and that the State Highway Board is hereby instructed that upon completion of the highway it be properly identified as such in order that future generations of Georgia be made to fully realize the untold work of said late Clark Howell to his State.
