THE DE SOTO TRAIL HIGHWAY — DESIGNATED.

No. 48.

A RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The De Soto Expedition through Georgia, is of too much historical significance and forms a chapter in the story of Spain in America, and in the story of all America, too important and too romantic for it to be allowed to pass without due and wide spread recognition; and

WHEREAS, There is no better way to perpetuate and commemorate this event, than to designate the nearest highway to the best known route of De Soto's Army through Georgia, as The De Soto Trail.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Highway beginning at south east corner of Decatur County, thence to Attapulgus, thence to Bainbridge, thence to Colquitt, thence to Arlington, thence to Leary, thence to Albany, thence to Leesburg, thence to Leslie, thence to De Soto, thence to Cordele, thence to Abbeville, thence to Hawkinsville, thence to Dublin, thence to Wrightsville, thence to Midville, thence to Waynesboro, and on to Augusta, Georgia, be known and designated by the Highway Department as The De Soto Trail.

[Sidenote: De Soto Trail Highway.]
