DR. ALFRED TENNYSON COLEMAN MEMORIAL BRIDGE — DESIGNATED.

No. 120 (House Resolution No. 102-312c).

A RESOLUTION

To designate a certain bridge on State route 31, approximately 15 miles southwest of Dublin on the Dublin-McRae Road, as the Dr. Alfred Tennyson Coleman Bridge; and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, Dr. Alfred Tennyson Coleman (February 12, 1844-September 3, 1955), received his medical education at Emory University and did Post Graduate work in New York City; and owned and operated the Coleman Hospital for twenty years, and

WHEREAS, he practiced medicine in Dublin for forty-five years; was president of the Laurens County Medical Society; Life member of the American Medical Association; was a member of the Medical Association of Georgia; was a member of the Sixth District Medical Society and served many terms as City and County Physician for the City of Dublin and the County of Laurens; served the citizens of Laurens and surrounding counties in many capacities, and

WHEREAS, as a county commissioner of Laurens County he endeavored to build better roads and to span the Oconee River with appropriate bridges, and served his county well; and

WHEREAS, he served on the City Board of Education; was a staff member of the Laurens County Hospital; steward in the First Methodist Church; was chairman of the Building Committee thereof and later served as trustee thereof; was a member of the Advisory council of the State Board of Health, and

WHEREAS, he served as a State Senator of the Sixteenth District in 1948 and 1949 and served his State and district with distinction, and

WHEREAS, it is only just and proper that recognition should be made for his service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the General Assembly of Georgia that the bridge spanning Alligator Creek (now known as Stone Creek Bridge) on State route 31 (U.S. 441), approximately fifteen miles southwest of Dublin on the Dublin-McRae Road, be and the same is hereby designated as the Dr. Alfred Tennyson Coleman Memorial Bridge.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable plaque and appropriate markers be placed at the approaches to said bridge so as to inform all persons of the designation herein made.

Approval Date: Approved March 13, 1957.
