A. CHARLES SOULE BRIDGE — DESIGNATED.

No. 166 (House Resolution No. 330-785e).

A RESOLUTION

To designate a bridge across the Cartecay River at the city limits of East Ellijay, Georgia as the A. Charles Soule Bridge, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, A. Charles Soule of Gilmer County faithfully and diligently served his fellowman for a great number of years throughout Gilmer County and Northern Georgia, and unstintingly contributed his time and efforts to any and every community project that he was called upon to aid; and

WHEREAS, in the performance of his duties, A. Charles Soule was always willing to serve, first as a soldier during World War I, in various capacities with the American Legion and as Commander of the local Legion Post. As Mayor of Ellijay he did an outstanding work. During World War II he was available for Draft Board work. Many other times the community called upon him for service, and each time he answered with never a thought of personal gain, and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his long period of service and the love and affection which the people of Gilmer County and the State of Georgia hold for A. Charles Soule; the members of the legislature of the State of Georgia are desirous of honoring this outstanding Georgian in some appropriate manner.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the General Assembly of Georgia, That the bridge across the Cartecay River, at the city limits of East Ellijay, Georgia shall hereafter be designated as the "A. Charles Soule Bridge" and the State Highway Department officials are directed to have placed on the said bridge, an appropriate sign indicating to the public the name hereby designated.
