COBB BRIDGE — DESIGNATED.

No. 31 (House Resolution No. 28-51).

A RESOLUTION

To designate a bridge across the Coosawatee River in Gilmer County, Georgia, near the intersection of State Highway Numbers 5 and 282, as the Cobb Bridge, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, the Georgia Rural Roads Authority and the State Highway Department of Georgia have constructed a bridge over the Coosawatee River in Gilmer County, Georgia, on a post road known as an extension of State Highway No. 282 connecting State Highway No. 5 with State Highway No. 52, and

WHEREAS, the strong and enduring nature of the structure over this river symbolizes the substantial strength and useful public service that have long characterized the fine people of Ellijay and Gilmer County during the years of growth and development of this great North Georgia area, and

WHEREAS, it has been represented to the State Highway Board that the local people desire to commemorate the helpful attitude and solid stability demonstrated by one of the old families of the area by recognizing and honoring one of its most respected members through giving his name to the said bridge over the said Coosawatee River, the said State Highway Board has adopted a resolution naming the bridge as the Cobb Bridge as a tribute to Honorable J. P. Cobb, Sr., and his honored family.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the General Assembly of Georgia that the bridge across the Coosawatee River shall hereafter be designated as the "Cobb Bridge" and the State Highway Department officials are directed to have placed on the said bridge, an appropriate sign or placque indicating to the public the name hereby designated.
