GEORGIA 1991

1991 Vol. 1 -- Page: 2026

THE ZELL MILLER MOUNTAIN PARKWAY — DESIGNATED.

No. 55 (House Resolution No. 283).

A RESOLUTION

Redesignating a portion of the Appalachian Highway, State Route 515, beginning at the north end of Interstate 575 and continuing to the border between Georgia and North Carolina, as "The Zell Miller Mountain Parkway"; and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, the construction of the Appalachian Highway through north Georgia has been completed; and

WHEREAS, this highway is a vital developmental route in this area of the Appalachian region; and

WHEREAS, this highway passes through Young Harris, Georgia, the home of Honorable Zell Miller, Governor of the State of Georgia; and

WHEREAS, the record of public service for the people of the State of Georgia attained by Honorable Zell Miller is an admirable one; and

WHEREAS, Governor Zell Miller exemplifies the courage, integrity, and moral fiber of the people of Appalachia; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his leadership and dedicated service to the state, it is only fitting and proper that this portion of the Appalachian Highway be designated as "The Zell Miller Mountain Parkway."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA that that portion of the Appalachian Highway known as State Route 515, from a point beginning at the north end of Interstate 575 and continuing to the border between the State of Georgia and the State of North Carolina, is redesignated as "The Zell Miller Mountain Parkway."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Department of Transportation is authorized and directed to place appropriate markers designating "The Zell Miller Mountain Parkway."

Pursuant to Article III, Section V, Paragraph XIII of the Constitution of the State of Georgia, this resolution became law on April 25, 1991, without the approval of the Governor.
