GEORGIA 1998

1998 Vol. 1 -- Page: 947

ROSCOE COLLINS DRIVE;
TED HUDSON HIGHWAY — DESIGNATED.

No. 92 (House Resolution No. 1095).

A RESOLUTION

PART 1

Designating Roscoe Collins Drive in Union County; and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, Charles Roscoe Collins attended public school in Union County and graduated from Blairsville Collegiate Institute in 1927, after which he completed two years at Mercer University and began a long and successful career as an educator; and

WHEREAS, he served in schools in Hall County, Colquitt County, McIntosh County, Camden County, Union County, and Chattooga County, finally retiring from Woody Gop School in 1972 after 42 years as an educator; and

WHEREAS, he and his lovely wife, LaVerne, have a daughter, Becky Moose, who is also a teacher in the middle school in Blairsville, and three grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Collins is so knowledgeable about the history of his home area that he is the unofficial historian of Union County, and everyone who knows him is impressed with his genuine love for the area and its people.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY that the street in Union County east of Blairsville which runs between Welburn Street east to the Glenn Gooch Bypass shall be named Roscoe Collins Drive.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Department of Transportation is authorized and directed to erect and maintain appropriate signs marking Roscoe Collins Drive.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Mr. Charles Roscoe Collins.

PART 2

Designating a portion of State Highway 107 as "Ted Hudson Highway"; and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, the late Honorable Eugene Talmadge "Ted" Hudson of Fitzgerald was a farmer and graduate of the University of Georgia who served with distinction as a member of the House of Representatives from 1969 through 1978; and

WHEREAS, Honorable Ted Hudson was a conservative legislator who greatly served the interests of his constituents and always cast his vote in harmony with the philosophy of his people; and

WHEREAS, he was intelligent and as well liked and respected as any member of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, he worked hard and diligently for the development of State Highway 107; and

WHEREAS, he coined the use of the now time honored and much repeated phrase "boogers and haints" to describe displeasing items hidden in legislation; and

WHEREAS, he dearly loved his family, was happily married to Ann Hudson, and was the brother of Honorable Newt Hudson, Representative of the 156th District; and

WHEREAS, he was a remarkably effective legislator, true gentleman, and a great friend to all; and

WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that he be honored by this state.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA that the portion of State Highway 107 from its intersection with State Highway 112 in Turner County to its intersection with U.S. Highway 129 in Ben Hill County is designated "Ted Hudson Highway."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Department of Transportation is authorized and directed to erect and maintain appropriate signs so designating the highway.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized and directed to transmit appropriate copies of the resolution to the Department of Transportation and the family of Honorable Ted Hudson.

Approval Date: Approved April 20, 1998.
